As is the tradition on Awards Night there are NO losers. So, to start the evening off ALL nominees were called forward to receive Certificates of Merit.

Margaret Mitchell, Conservative candidate for Central region presented them

Blacklaw Primary, East Kilbride

Calderglen H.S S2

St. Leonard's R.C Primary 6

Jim Muir

Tommy Mc Sorley

Mabel Dennison

EK Talking Newspaper

THIS YEAR'S TROPHY WINNERS

Louise Reilly, Deputy Editor, East Kilbride News presents the EK Rosebowl to Gordon and Sophie Forsyth of EK Talking Newspaper.

Chief Inspector Neil Kerr hands over the EK CP Panel Shield to Tommy Mc Sorley

Deputy Provost, Beith Forrest presented SLC Salvers to Blacklaw Primary and Calderglen H.S. respectively

MC on the night, PC Tom Skelton prepares to deliver a few surprises.

Having delivered a short discourse on the CSI:EK Unit Tom then asked Inspector Ross Aitken if he would present a couple more certificates.

Ross presented certificates to John Allan MacIntyre and John Doyle. Alex King and Martin McGibbon of Care and Repair (apologies, no photo) and a certificate was subsequently delivered to Clare Livingston (EK shopping Centre Management Team).

These presentations were hardly completed when the poker faced MC dropped the bombshell of the evening. Telling the audience that a new award has been initiated by the CP Panel he then called on John Doyle to take custody of the new trophy which will be known as the John F Doyle Youth Award

Panel Patron, Linda Fabiani and panel member Vikki Thomson hand over the new trophy to a speechless John F Doyle.

The audience were treated to a spirited performance from Calderglen Jazz Quintet (further apologies as it seems the vocalist remained out of shot!!) and a splendid Buffet courtesy of South Lanarkshire Council
